" I grew up in former Czechoslovakia as a Hungarian, during the communist era in a multicultural environment. During those times to see the rest of the world was just a childhood dream, now it is a reality. Before I settled down in Hungary, I lived in Vienna, Berlin and Sydney - just to mention a few. Through those years, I gained lots of experience and learnt a lot about the world, and myself. I hope I will have the chance to share my passion about Europe and show you the best of it."

PATRICIA SUTRELL

" Always thirsty for new challenges, my path led me to the role of Tour Director. I love people, enjoy sharing the history and anecdotes of the different places visited on tour. Everyday is different, and this provides me with the motivation to hopefully meet everyone's dream. I do believe that travelling is like a book, if you do not travel you will always remain on the first page. All we need is to open our eyes to the world, and enjoy every moment we have, as life is a journey."

GEORGIOS PAFILIS

" For me, travel is more than just a journey - it's an opportunity to explore new cultures, meet fascinating people, and create unforgettable memories. And as a Tour Director, I get to share my passion for discovery with others every day. I became a Tour Director because I love connecting travellers with the rich histories, vibrant traditions, and breathtaking landscapes that make each destination unique.
